DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

On Tuesday last, a meeting was held in the Common Hall of the Government House, of the Republican Members of the General Assembly, and of such other friends to the election of the Democratic candidates for President and President of the United States, as were present in the City; for the purpose of appointing a Central Committee, &c.

On motion, William D. Mosely, Esq., Speaker of the Senate, was called to the chair; and the Principal and Assistant Clerks of the Senate, Gen. Wm. J. Cowan, and Col. Daniel Coleman, were requested to act as secretaries.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed to draw up resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. Maj. Jas. Kerr reported from the committee, the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a Central Committee of 24, who are requested to receive such nominations of candidates for Electors for the next President and Vice President of the United States, as may be made by the people in the several electoral districts of this State; and to ascertain whether they are willing to vote, and will vote, for the Republican candidates who have been nominated by a Convention of the people's delegates at Baltimore, in May last.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Republicans in this State, who are in favor of electing Martin Van Buren President; and Richard M. Johnson, Vice President, to correspond with the aforesaid Central Committee, and communicate to them the nomination of candidates for electors, when made.

Resolved, That the Central Committee be, and are hereby, requested to address the people of this State on the next Presidential election, as soon as the electoral ticket is formed.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting be added to the Central Committee.

In accordance with the foregoing resolutions, the following gentlemen were appointed to compose the Central Committee for the State, viz:

An amusing incident happened on Tuesday morning last, in the House of Representatives, just before they convened, of which the following account is given by the Reporter for the Baltimore Chronicle:—

A Quaker lady in the gallery rose and commenced an exhortation to the members to attend more to the principles of religion and morality, as a duty they owed to their God and country, being Representatives of the freest Government in the world; and concluded by requesting permission to preach in the Capitol this evening. Mr. Carr was sent up by the Speaker to cut short her delivery, but the members on the floor cried "go on, hear, hear!" but some one near her prevailed on her to sit down, when a member arose and observed that he hoped, as the lady in the gallery had concluded, the clerk would proceed to read the journal of the House.—*Nat. MORRIS VERNON, (Ohio,) Dec. 19.

We regret to state that on Friday morning at 2 o'clock, a fire broke out at Gambier, in Bishop McIlvaine's house, in its progress consuming the furniture of the house, principally deposited in four rooms, which are those burnt, and which contained a large stock of valuable apparatus, &c., also destroyed. The Bishop's children were sleeping in the attic. By the time their father reached it, which was his first care, the smoke filled the apartment, and had nearly suffocated one of them, who was with difficulty restored.

Melancholy Event.—During the severe cold night of Wednesday week, two widowed females, who were sisters, were frozen to death at Nantucket. The one was Mrs. Phebe, widow of Sylvanus Coleman, aged 79 years, the other Mrs. Priscilla, widow of Captain Joseph Cartwright, aged 66 years. They had retired in usual health, but were found in the morning lying upon the floor of their apartment dead and frozen. It is supposed, from appearance, that one of them had risen in the night and accidentally fell—that the other rose to her assistance—and that both perished from the intense coldness of the weather. The Nantucket Gazette says that this event was not occasioned by any destitution of the requisite comforts of life—with which they were well provided; and that the other inmates of the house perceived no alarm during the night, nor obtained any notice of their condition until discovered as above stated. It is a remarkable fact that both of the deceased were born on the 6th of the 7th month—one in the year 1756, the other in 1769.

Nothing is so freely given away as advice, and nothing so illy taken.

Awful Occurrence.—On Sunday last, (the 29th Nov.) near Bath, while two young ladies, Miss Frances Oden and Miss Elizabeth Stubbs were riding in a gig, (accompanied by the brother of the former named lady, who was on horse back,) the horse took fright, upset the vehicle, and Miss Oden's head was struck with such violence on the ground as to break her neck!—she of course died immediately. The deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. Charles Oden, of this county; Miss Stubbs fortunately escaped the like awful end of her friend, but was considerably injured.—Washington (N. C.) Whig.
